“ "Miranda", as we lovingly called him will be dearly missed. He was a part of my life, through our family and he was always a joy to see. His "Hi mija" or Hi Debbie" was his typical greeting joined with his beautiful smile. He was a very humble man, hard working, and always busy on projects around his home. For as long as I can remember, he was always a gentle soul. In later years I would often see him at Del Taco sitting quietly enjoying his meal. I will miss seeing him, but I know he has a place in heaven, embraced by our heavenly father and reunited with his beautiful wife Mercy. My deepest condolences to his family, continuous prayers for healing your broken hearts.
